Pastor's Message

Dear Church Family:

Millions across North America witnessed the moon block out the sun during a total solar eclipse Monday. The eclipse's path of totality stretched from Matzalan, Mexico to Newfoundland, an area that crosses 15 US states and is home to 44 million people. Most of those in North America, but not in the direct path still witnessed a partial eclipse. Total solar eclipses happen somewhere around the world every 11 to 18 months, but they don't often cross paths with millions of people. The U.S. last got a taste in 2017, and won't again see a coast-to-coast spectacle until 2045! How old will you be in 21 years? I hope and pray that we are ALL in heaven by then! I know that today is the day to decide—because TODAY is the Day of Salvation! Tomorrow is never guaranteed!

I have often said that "Every Day is a good day and You do not want to miss one!" Things happen. Life changes. Everything seems to be going quite well and then you hear from your Doctor that "the recent tests are back and there is some things we need to talk about. Please call my office and make an arrangement to come in this week!"

The journey of faith is a day by day journey. It begins in the morning as we awaken to a new day and concludes that evening as we fall asleep. It is so important that we take time for prayer and reflection each day for ourselves and also with our family. Our children grow up so quickly and soon move on to establish their own homes and families and future.

The school year is rapidly coming to an end. A few more weeks and the children will be moving on to the next grade—or graduating! Our congratulations are extended to each one! A special thanks to each of our teachers for their ministry to our children.

Karen and I are looking forward to worshipping with you this Sabbath. Michael Blackburn has the message. It is entitled "The Second Commandment."

Inspired Words

" When we seem to doubt God's love and distrust His promises we dishonor Him and grieve His Holy Spirit. How would a mother feel if her children were constantly complaining of her, just as though she did not mean them well, when her whole life's effort had been to forward their interests and to give them comfort? Suppose they should doubt her love; it would break her heart. How would any parent feel to be thus treated by his children? And how can our heavenly Father regard us when we distrust His love, which has led Him to give His only-begotten Son that we might have life? The apostle writes, "He that spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?" Romans 8:32. And yet how many, by their actions, if not in word, are saying, "The Lord does not mean this for me. Perhaps He loves others, but He does not love me."
