Pastor's Message

Dear Church Family:

Last Wednesday was May 1! It is hard to believe but a third of the year is gone already. A few more weeks and the children will be out of school anticipating a fun-filled summer. Some families will be able to get away for a few days of vacation and have a special time with the family.

I just returned from the Doctors office and he said my knee was “looking good and recovering nicely from the surgery.” I was in the Doctors office all afternoon—waiting and waiting for my turn. I did notice a number of patients—also waiting but they seemed to be in a lot more discomfort than I was—a quick reminder that there is always something to be thankful for! The doctor indicated that in a few more weeks the healing process should be complete! I am very thankful that surgery was able to adequately take care of the problem!

A number of people are choosing Wednesday to have a special time of prayer and fasting seeking the Lords guidance and direction for the new location of our Church and also some personal issues! I am convinced that God will open the way for us as we unite together in prayer for His guidance and direction.

Throughout the Old and New Testament there are many references to God's people fasting and praying for God's guidance and deliverance. We need to remember that fasting doesn't change God—it changes us! There are many who have experienced victory through fasting and prayer over a habit that they have struggled with for years. We need to remember that “OUR GOD IS ABLE!!— to save to the uttermost—to keep us from falling—and to do more than we can think or dream is possible—(Heb. 7:25, Jude 24 and Eph. 3:20

I believe it is important for us to remember our National and State leaders in prayer. There is a lot of chaos and anger in different sections of the country especially around some of our colleges and universities. It is frightening to see how quickly a “mob” mentality can be generated.

Karen and I are looking forward to worshipping with you this Sabbath.

Pastor Lynn

Inspired Words

"The children of God are called to be representatives of Christ, showing forth the goodness and mercy of the Lord. As Jesus has revealed to us the true character of the Father, so we are to reveal Christ to a world that does not know His tender, pitying love. "As Thou hast sent Me into the world," said Jesus, "even so have I also sent them into the world." "I in them, and Thou in Me; ... that the world may know that Thou hast sent Me." John 17:18, 23. The apostle Paul says to the disciples of Jesus, "Ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ," "known and read of all men." 2 Corinthians 3:3, 2. In every one of His children, Jesus sends a letter to the world. If you are Christ's follower, He sends in you a letter to the family, the village, the street, where you live. Jesus, dwelling in you, desires to speak to the hearts of those who are not acquainted with Him. Perhaps they do not read the Bible, or do not hear the voice that speaks to them in its pages; they do not see the love of God through His works. But if you are a true representative of Jesus, it may be that through you they will be led to understand something of His goodness and be won to love and serve Him."
